

Marta Szigeti Bonifert

Marta Szigeti Bonifert is the Vice President of the Institute of Directors (IoD) Hungary, Vice President of the European Partners for Environment (EPE) Belgium, member of the board of the CEE Gender Network and scientific advisor to Agroinnova (University of Turin) Scientific Committee.

Marta Szigeti Bonifert has spent 35+ years working for the environment in various capacities at organizations such as the Environment Protection Institute and the Ministry for the Environment and Regional Development in Hungary. Before joining the Regional Environmental Center (REC), she spent 10 years in business working for multinational companies in various senior roles ranging from head of human resources to commercial director for the CEE region. Until the end of January 2017, she was the Executive Director of the REC, serving for almost 14 years.

Marta Szigeti Bonifert received a Master in Business Administration from the Katz Graduate School of Business from the University of Pittsburgh. She has a bachelor of science degree from the University of Kuwait.

